

CANTILO & BENNETT, L.L.P.
Special Deputy Receiver

NOTICE REGARDING RECORDS REQUESTS
EFFECTIVE APRIL 1, 2025

Effective April 1, 2025, CANTILO & BENNETT, L.L.P., as Special Deputy Receiver (the “SDR”) for Access Insurance Company (“AIC”) will no longer respond to, or produce records in response to, any type of records demands, including, but not limited to, Subpoenas, Subpoena Duces Tecum, Requests for Production, and/or Deposition Subpoenas (collectively, “Subpoenas”).

On March 13, 2018, the 261st Judicial District Court of Travis County, Texas (the “Receivership Court”) entered an Agreed Order Appointing Liquidator and Notice of Automatic Stay (the “Permanent Injunction”) against AIC. On March 15, 2018, the Commissioner designated CANTILO & BENNETT, L.L.P. as the Special Deputy Receiver of AIC. The Permanent Injunction is posted on the SDR’s website at www.accessinsurancesdr.com.

The Permanent Injunction placed AIC into receivership for liquidation under Chapter 443 of the Texas Insurance Code. AIC ceased conducting business at that time. AIC is insolvent and has no employees or offices. AIC is being liquidated and the estate will close in the near future.

Pursuant to the Permanent Injunction and TEX. INS. CODE § 443.008(c), an automatic stay exists barring the continuation or commencement of any action against the SDR in any forum other than the Receivership Court, including but not limited to subpoenas seeking business records of AIC.

TEX. INS. CODE § 443.008(k) provides that “[t]he estate of an insurer that is injured by any willful violation of a stay provided by this section is entitled to actual damages, including costs and attorney’s fees. In appropriate circumstances, the receivership court may impose additional sanctions.”

In the event an attempt is made to enforce Subpoenas or seek any type of sanction against the SDR outside of the Receivership Court, the SDR will seek to recover its reasonable and necessary attorney’s fees and any other expense or damages to the estate.

Thank you for your attention to this notice.
